TOMOKAN '75

Rollins College
Winter Park, Fla.

An individual spider web identifies a species:

an order of instinct prevails through all accidents of circumstance, though possibility is high along the peripheries of spider

*webs:
you can go all around the fringing attachments*

and find disorder ripe, entropy rich, high levels of random, numerous occasions of accident:

*the possible settings
of a web are infinite:*

*how does the spider keep identity
while creating the web
in a particular place?*

how and to what extent and by what modes of chemistry and control?

it is wonderful how things work: I will tell you about it because

Pete Beck

Lisa Miller and Bev Buckley

*it is interesting and because whatever is moves in weeds
and stars and spider webs and known*

*is loved:
in that love,
each of us knowing it,
I love you,*

Scott Gillmore
and Bill Bradel

Fox

Adelaide Klein and Craig Watson

Skip Yacorec and Bruce Howland

Amado Bobadilla

*for it moves within and beyond us, sizzles in winter grasses, darts and hangs with bumblebees
by summer windowsills:*

Tracy Folker and Steve S. [unclear]

*I will show you
the underlying that takes no image to itself,
cannot be shown or said,
but weaves in and out of moons and blatterweeds, is all and beyond destruction because created fully in no particular form:*

Jenny Ray and Ivan Fleishman

Pat Murray

if the web were perfectly pre-set, the spider could never find a perfect place to set it in; and

Tony Waits

Bill Hardy

*if the web were perfectly adaptable,
if freedom and possibility were without limit, the web would lose its special identity:*

Jerry Brown

*the row-strung garden web keeps order at the center where space is freest (interesting that the freest
"medium" should accept the firmest order) and that order diminishes toward the periphery allowing at the points of contact entropy equal to entropy*

*Consider the hammer –
It keeps its head,
It doesn't fly off the handle.
It keeps pounding away.
It finds the point and then drives it home.
It looks at the other side, too, and thus often clinches the matter.
It makes mistakes, but when it does it starts all over.
It is the only knocker in the world that does any good.*

EDUCATION

*Making life worth while Every soul that touches yours –
Be it the slightest contact –
Gets therefrom some good;
Some little grace; one kindly thought;
One aspiration yet unfelt;
One bit of courage
For the darkening sky
One gleam of faith
To brave the thickening ills of life;
One glimpse of brighter skies –
To make this life worthwhile
And heaven a surer heritage.*

The Chi Os ended up this year's rush season with biggest (and we think the best) pledge class on campus. So what if we didn't win all our softball games? We sure had fun! As the year wore on, our living room began to take on the distinct odor of beer but that didn't keep us from carrying on the tradition of watching "All my Chickens" every afternoon, there. Pledges, we love your interior decorating and hot dog cooking. It looks like you're going to keep up the Chi O spirit.

Elissa — We hope you are responsible, Mom.

Carol — "I'm in love, I'm in love." 410's Smittyen.

Lynne — Bart, have you had any big Macs lately?

Katie C. — "I haven't slept in three weeks, I have ten papers due tomorrow and the Tab machine is broken."

Pam — Cakeface, you've had your share of MM, sleep, sunshine, and 557's this year.

Sherry — "I'm so happy!! You guys, does this outfit look alright?"

Robin — "I'll be at the ART, see you in a few weeks."

Elaine — "Girls, let me show you my latest art project."

Lea Ann — "Now, girls, I just want to say one thing." She's been in a Stu all year.

Rdell — "Who stole my cheese from the refrigerator?"

Nancy — How's Nancy accounting for her time? At the Phi Delt house, of course.

Katie N. — "Is anyone going to the Pub? I talked to the cutest guy last night. He's so adorable!"

Gail — Now Gail, I hear something about you and I want to know if it's true.

Carla — "Mole" AAAUUUGGH! "Why am I not doing my work? "Don't do worms, Pam."

Linda — "Chi O glitter girl" Hope you had a great time in England. Don't fall off your shoes!

Beth — "I'm going to be burned at the stake nineteen times!"

Katie H. — "Oh, Hells Bells!" Little Miss Chatterbox just can't keep a secret.

Lucy — "I can get ice from the Science Center."

Patty — "Need a date for the formal? I can set you up with the nicest guy."

Kitty — "Spidermonkey" "I'll have a big Mac, french fries and a coke, please." Are you going to Georgia Tech or Rollins?

Jo — "Isn't anybody going to stay up late and study with me tonight? I've gone through six Ale-8's in one day!"

Kathy — "See you later, I'm going to Rosie's. I'm working on the composite y'all."

Karen — Nice eyes, bird legs and alot of a "pee!"

Cindy — Cindy's been fishing off campus all year.

Hope — "Foxpaw" "Did you hear my stomach growling in class today?"

Pledges — "Why don't more of you actives come to the softball games?"

ALPHA PHI

To be able to tell a joke is great; to be able to take a joke is far better.

Jackie, were you trying to housebreak Lou or Butts? Linda, why are you so worried about what is going to be in the yearbook? Lydia, ever consider Medicare? Cathy, was it your candlelight that started them all? Flint, are you sure that the couch was in the livingroom and not in the bedroom? JoAnn, are you on the staff of Ripley's Believe It or Not? Suzanne, wanna go the J.I.T.B.? Sallie, what phone number is yours? Tyler, whatever happened to your love from Atlanta, just inches, MMMMM. Patti, better watch where you blow your horn! Vickie, golf is for the "birds". Fran, no one ever called you fickle, did they? Pam, as soon as your presidency runs out are you going back to wearing headbands? Susan, candlelights are more fun as a surprise, aren't they? Kim, how's the meat at Morrison's? Candy is dandy but liquor is quicker. Shirley, Let's Get It On! Shelley, no fair practicing karate on your roommate! Susan W., what ever happened to the good old days? Joanne, just for fun, why don't you handle CPW next year? Heidi, sure you're the only one living in that double room? Mary, are alums more "active"? Dana, are you sure you're not a theatre major? Jill, isn't that Mac Davis we see you with everyday? Cat, senior year is for "leisure-ly" study, huh? Becky, why are you buying china and linen? Kathy, do day students have more fun? Becky B., Pittsburgh Steelers all the way! Sissy, don't you get tired of bouncing those balls (basketball, that is). Lynn, are you PARCHED again? Dee, who is this guy from home? Jenny, sure will miss you! Betsy, never go to JAI ALAI with Royston or you'll get hooked. Cathy D. Keeping that redhead tradition in the house, huh? Konda, you like those car washes, don't you? Louise, do you plan on dieting all your life? Congratulations you can take a joke, want to know why I know why I know? Because you're still reading!!

Arden — "Who's calling, please" Peter, Sandy or Steve — sorry, she's at the Pub.
 Beth — Honk! This is dynamite, let's have some more drink bags.
 Cyndy D. — Please may I have a Sig?
 Cissie — Hey, you guys! What kind of ice cream is there?
 Egert — To Clapper Diamonds are a girl's best friend!
 Janet L. — Midnight at Le Jardin-send that camel to bed.
 Amy — Where's Amy? Gazing, synchronized, sleeping or eating ice cream? A roll away bed.
 Janice B. — Let me go to sleep for an hour, then I'll get up, study and have a sandwich or two.
 Pat — John has a new credit card, eh?
 Sandi — Let's go shopping tonight — I ate too much for dinner.
 Pix — How much did Super Bubble's stock go up this year?
 Cindy — Karen, Karen wait! Will anybody else lick these green stamps?
 Nancy Y. — Instead of cold feet with Rob, she has white feet from tennis Karen — Where next? Busch Gardens, Bauers, Trader Vics, Bourbon Street or Frozen Gold?
 Jane — So did Jeff tee you off tonight? So get a pizza!
 Maureen — Really, let's get some more beer, really, it would be great!
 Jucker — Get those purple sneaker orking!
 Janie — You'll always be the leader of the pack when it comes to law
 Leslie — You'll do the trick when it comes to cooking for Kim.
 Jill — Rush, Rush, Rush don't you ever stop?
 Missy — Are you and Suzy eating Rusty's again?
 Kimi — Can I borrow your popcorn popper again, Janie?
 Kathy Bl — OK, Tom, if you really need me, I'll work at the Pub.
 Janice W. — Juanita is still looking for the Black Forest.
 Lisa — Turn back old man and let the sun shine in.
 Patrice — The telephone for you, again Patrice.
 Shep — Shep recently moved to a plantation to enjoy southern hospitality
 Janet W. — Surfs up! Let's hit the beach.
 Robin — Andy found a wonder of a woman!
 Ellie — Our super sunfish sailing sister!
 Lulie — Mel-ancholy all fall, eh?
 Jeano — she and Duncan make beautiful music together.
 Terry — the Ebb-tide came in and swept her away.
 Wendy — She has been watching the submarine races with Floyd.
 Stacey — Wins an academy award for her performance as Priscilla pimple.
 Linda — Did the European Health Spa send you a Bill?
 Schu — Performed as a mushroom in Elem. School but will be remembered for her Emergency Room performance on Pledge Sunday.
 Bev — You'll go along way with tennis, baby.
 Kathleen — Some-Thanes on her mind!
 Tracey — Our hostess with the mostest.
 Nancy D. — Our next contestant on $10,000 Pyramid, Good Luck!
 Pam — Colorado Rocky Mt. High!
 Cathi W. — What was the attraction in Colorado and Louisiana, could it be a certain Texan.
 Alisan — Hurd you had a great time in Europe!
 Lyn — Patricelli won the case for Lyn.
 Susan — Great Scott! Susan blew the candle!

NCM

Diane reigns supreme over fourth floor of New Women's Dorm and is usually seen with her backgammon board not far away. From not far down the hall drifts the scent of buttery popcorn and the hum of Sally's sewing machine on which she is whipping up one of her latest creations, which may not be finished in the near future. Took's mind is on another planet — Venus to be exact, and Sue's is on our first basketball game trying to figure out what exactly landed on her foot that broke it in numerous different places. Somehow our athletic career has been quite illfated . . . not only did we finish tied with three other teams for fourth place but our players never seemed to grasp the fundamentals of the game. Wendy couldn't remember which basket was ours . . . It turned out it didn't really matter anyway since she didn't score even after she knocked down two of the opponent's guards racing towards their basket, and she's our coach!! After Sue S. was injured, she went to Lee's with Baicairdi, our official mascot. In other forms Baicairdi is quite popular on fourth floor and Yan has been awarded our annual "Dac Queen" title. Kate was close behind but decided that she better catch up in her work which she suddenly realized she had forgotten about in the trauma of the first month of school and had to drop out of the running. While we're on the subject of running, Caroline seems to be doing a lot of it down Interlachen and back every morning. We're trying to encourage Crazy to get up and go with her else how is she going to catch up with men that have longer legs? Meanwhile, we're trying to decide who saw Barbe last and where exactly it was. Chris is still waiting for the day when she can quit wearing those gymshorts five sizes too big and Beth is waiting to hear from that boy of hers in Australia. We're all awaiting Pam, Lisa and Rose's return from that land of kangeroos and kaola bears. And thank heavens rush 1974 went so well. Anne was going crazy trying to remember all the needed items to entice our prospective pledges, but it was well worth the effort for on Pledge Sunday nine joined us.

Carmen, Cunde, Ginny, Joan and Sally our Connecticut crew. Mika our Cleveland extension, Cathy our beach bum, Katie our Crow woman, and Kathy our ariste in residence.

With the coming of the new year, the brothers of Sigma Phi Epsilon again embarked on the road in search of lays, rays, and jays only to find a short cut to Peyton Place. Bobo, our president, paid a visit to divorce court and came away with custody of a big phone bill from Jacksonville and some empty gin bottles. Randy Taylor, alias Walt Disney, finally stepped out of Fantasyland and realized he'd never be president. Stu, our treasurer, is still trying to convince everyone that redeye can be terminal. Pete Daiger and his trail of heartbroken women proved that a little bit goes a long way. Bruce Keir and the Lone Ranger have something in common, they both use silver bullets. Arche was launched into orbit in September and he still hasn't fired his retro rockets. Harmer left six inches of his height in Agnes' room last year. Eggert is going to make Connie a great wife. Doc Byrnes spent a lot of time squeezing melons. Piggy Blalock proved how far twenty five guilders would go in Amsterdam. Jim Rice wanted everyone to get naked in his room. Tom Newton found a ring in a Cracker Jack box and was suddenly engaged. Fast Eddie proved to be the first living Pollock joke. John Fox is engaged to a nice guy. John Pattyson believes that the Pancake House has the second biggest in town. John "the bear" Bralick loves his honey. French is unemployed since the police raided the Japanese Massage Parlor. Godfrey scooped all the Rollins women fall term, so he decided to go to Columbia and try his luck down there. Mike Haggis won the Harpo Marx look alike contest. Steve Schot is alive and well and living in a beer can. How ya feeling, Steve? Tim Grant, the cowboy, is back in the saddle again with the third baseman of the Baltimore Orioles. John Race went to the beach and came back and found a "Sandy" bed. Finch, for the last time, Ron Carpenter is not from Thomasville. Dan DeMenical is engaged to a Club Juana girl. Quite a step up, Dan. Dusty Green is so full of it his eyes are brown. Flip Crawford thinks he's the big chief, but he's really a Squaw around Sue Sue. Will "the governor" Kirk and Daiger are playing pass the woman. Mert Probasco is currently filming a new TV show, "Speed Racer." Charlie Race, alias the Nads, has found some new women, Rosie and her five sisters. And as it was last year, Pat Watson remained the only sane person in the house. Pledges and little sisters, keep up the good work.

First there is a mountain, then there is no mountain, then there is. That's the one thing we've all learned by now.

The year started out with a bang reminiscent of the time Fab and Seavy launched a mouse into orbit. However and notwithstanding, we finally picked up the pace and regained our lustful cravings and capitalistic aspirations — visions of Jaguar dealerships and club Months, tempered only by a new found respect for the rug-ged halls of the club. No damages. Soon our collective interests collectively turned toward the pressing need and important business of procreating maggots. And thanks to our timely union with the gods at the annual stargazers convention, there sprang from the almighty forehead of Zeus Boyle, Maggots Ford, Nissim, Jay, John C., Jeff, Todd, Mark, Ted, Dave, Tommy, Bert, Blake, Dane, Bones, John R., Ron, Paul, Michael, Ken Shook, Hugo, and Bob. And we were only looking for a few good men. (We weeded out the boys at the now famous trial by fire (alarm) on the steps of Mills.)

And now on to the Rub Your Dub at the Pub Club. We've all witnessed the transformation of TKE's into Lambda's, KA's into Guildo's, and Sig-Eps into Phi Delt's and perhaps versa vice. Yet one aspect of Rollins has remained like time, eternally eternal...

The X-Club. We are all we were made up to be, and more and more. We couldn't get enough and we still can't but we love it like we love each other.

The Club has finally, like the Zen master achieves Satori, achieved Javal logic. Eggs were not only scrambled but tossed around... at the Phi Mu house. Some think the year can be summed up, like the surfer appreciates the crest of the wave, to that most simple of Club activities that has been maintained and perverted through the years — the love of sport and the sport of love.

This is the Club that is, was and shall be. We just are. Remember the ward, the Alamo, Hall Ball, the cages, Dean Pease, Mary, Night Owl Theatre, Nadineandliz, The Eight Naked.

You can't always get what you want but if you keep trying you might get a check for club beer. (Thanks to Ed's ablated cortex.)

It is with a sad heart that we release from our apron strings. Bugle, Cuban, J. O., Benne, Melody, Doc, Frizzy, Joey, Javal, Mac, and Lee. Best of Luck! Don't forget to write.

P.S. It might be worth mentioning the fates of old stags gone out to pasture. Ebo is now wearing a pair of cement shoes bought and paid for in Sarasota. Bob (movin' on) Morrison may be out to pasture but hasn't forgotten the cows. Mac is back for his fifth and final bout with academia and claims this to be his most productive year, but we all know better. Put an ad in the Sandspur! The old man is back — we've made him Club historian. Kid Rick, you're always welcome in the Club after leaving the Chi O house. And a bearded clan gathers no rooms — Oh naked steaks!

P.S.S. Bird Man Kane alias Smitty is alive and was last seen on a dinner date with Heffa.

In many ways it was an impressive year. Spencer started things off by going out west and showing up with the biggest load of Coors the east has ever seen. When Belly saw it he said, "Unfortunately my training comes first, but, how fortunate, Coors is on my diet." Pigman claims he was unimpressed.

Many of the boys were impressed with the freshman girls. Geoff was really impressed. Tino was so impressed that he forgot to lock his door. C. Bob the quiet one, has finally admitted that he too is favorably impressed. Bart was so impressed that he forsook the boys for the domestic life. Who knows, P.C. and Bart may be brothers again someday.

It seems that many guys have forsaken a life of celibacy. "Heartthrob" Hadley found a "devine" friend and to hang up his nickname. Scott H., 1/2 of last years baboon act called it quits when his better half arrived. Stuart got carried away and made the big step. Gordi is still impressed with last years freshman girls.

And the show goes on. Kirk and Bob are still impressed with the unimpressive Skins. D. J. and Ryan continue to impress themselves. Obelinsky, Artie, and Ward continue to contribute to their favorite charity, the "beef". Samck and Hal continue to impress everybody with their sporty "Cortinas". Peak, Sharp and Cabell were impressed with the dogs. Jimmy came out a winner, Peter came out even, and Cabell came out puking. Corning nearly lost it, impressively and Andy will never be impressed. Brad doesn't care, he's tuned in to Gainville.

Dennis is unimpressed with the housing situation. Sack hasn't been seen, he presumably set his alarm for graduation, see you then. Basketball Jones has taken to wrestling in the halls. Marshman was impressed with the geisha girls in Japan. Brother Hog is now making appointments, call 647-2341 between midnight and five a.m. George impressed everybody with the bears.

Then there was the Kangaroo Chapter of the Order, Down Under. Local talent proved to be something of a myth, Barney had his shipped in. Artie hid in Brooklyn as not to arouse suspicion. Claude was getting first hand accounts from Dr. Spahr in how to service dogs when they weren't also hunting. Pledges . . .

Since their pledging there has been nothing but trouble. Under the intellectual leadership of president Tin McFinn the terrible ten have definitely gone astray. It started when Morgan Crook and associates (Ed Kelly, Andy Holland, and John Shubert) ruined the fine K.A. reputation of honesty by stealing a Christmas tree from the lobby of a nearby hotel. In order to help out the police they carefully left a trail of bulbs and tinsel from the lobby to the Chapter Room. Thanks boys. Smusher got smushed playing soccer for Belly's Barbarian. Jerry Caldwell was this years only Virginian, while Kurt Dillon kept up the Panamanian tradition. Peter Juan got the host award for his impressive fondue blast. Jeffrey Glick was this years official delegate to Mardi Gras. As for Chuck . . . he has a long way to go. P.S. Scoop Katzenborn, where were you when we needed you.

On my initial return to Rollins, it seemed only fitting that my first stop be THE HOUSE. My first inclination was to stop at the President's Mansion, Room 102. "I guess they got outta hand last night, but no sweat, let's have an inch of Pinch." Just then I heard an innocent scream from the "F's" room and saw Trace running out of Mike's. Those goddam Kappas no doubt. As I walked out of Ned's room, the Cincinnati Flash played Kung Fu on my sixty dollar white Foot Joys. I was hesitant to venture upstairs, but this was ridiculous. I walked in on the big guy and found him sipping four Instant Breakfasts in his leisure chair. I could hardly tell why he was flushed — hard night, I guess. I walked across the hall to call on the resident drunk — couldn't find him — with Arnie no doubt. On now to the Day Sleepers room only to hear him saying half sleepily, "lots of winners this week, Ame, I guess I can't make it." Not wanting to bother him, I figured Migue would have a few golf tips. "early to bed, early to rise — keeps you high at least." Undaunted, I moved to Bianco's room and found him inching towards a record.

As I followed Wadsworth in his Dr. Dentons to the bathroom, I found Russo (the Italian Pele) laying the good rap on the urinal. Suddenly I heard a clamoring thunder on Scott's door, only to see Watson disenchanted with the living accommodations. Even Ahrensbrak can't replace a single in the house, I guess. I figured that at least Skinny would be able to fill me in, but Kathy led him astray.

Although I didn't know the sophomores well, I figured this was as good a time as any. I guessed wrong. As the music blasted through the hall, pretty boy Rod introduced me to the fatalities of the previous night. Lowry, the fool hearted S.C., was bitching about how much work he had to do while Pilley did it all. Fogle complained that M.W. couldn't do it anyway while Walsh comforted him with one of Gordie's secrets. I was surprised to see Yetter detached from Sherry's cherry, but understood his plight as Gaudreau tumbled to the floor on top of Biddinger's already prone body. The old man was trying to lead a fight song but could only conjour Lerman and Paulson (I hope he didn't let me down) to his cause. They were out of it anyway. As I walked to the stairwell, I couldn't help but notice DeRoche and Bascom pleading with the freshmen to accompany them to the beach.

With high expectations I climbed to the third floor only to be blown away by the infamous wrecking crew. As I entered the pool hall, Lorenzo was giggling about Gary's horsesh-- shot, and Jimmy countered with a quick brush and a look in the mirror. "I look alright," he thought, "but I wish I had Larry's ass." Benny was burnt out on the balcony as Matz cried for relief from the unbearable pressures of intercollegiate sports. I saw Touch subdued on the bed with visions of Zeke dancing through his head. And where have all the scholars gone? Next door perhaps, but it was not, since Gruntz' spreads were much too hot. The only doctoring he would do would be against the odds. I figured the Nar-Nars were always good for a laugh and Pubic proved it with his rendition of the fabulous Timmy Coons. Now in the dark, Pubic has not faltered without the Dawn. As I quietly leaked in the john, I was astonished to find Dexter Alfond passed out in the toilet. Maybe that was an oriental custom from the era of Whu Flung Poo. Finally I reached the summit — the palace of palaces. I couldn't help but wonder who would be the joyful occupant of the room that had petitioned me to the streets for a year. I stumbled in and fell amidst a pile of jocks. As I stretched them apart I vaguely recognized Skee instructing Smitty on the perils of pro baseball and the hazards of married life. It took me awhile but I finally realized that Kentuck had been virtually calmed by that good ol' Kentucky Blue Grass. I hastened his awakening and witnessed his arousal to the tune of — "Gotta Find Me a Woman." He quietly acknowledged my presence and I knew I'd better vacate the premises. I ran down the stairs and caught Fico in a tranquil salute to the almighty Columbo. I briskly passed him by and walked to the front door. I envisioned several brothers' accomplishments could have been mine. Howland certainly wouldn't have outscored the great William Murphy, nor would Yakopec or Biddinger have been able to dazzle the crowd with their great feats. Eberly and Westwood passed unsuspectingly by, never acknowledging the presence of the man who added too many years of service to the brotherhood. Dishearteningly I entered my valiant Valiant and felt the tingle of nostalgia as Waits and Patricelli passed by in their most elegant of styles. Had I missed the boat, I wondered? My fleeing thoughts only concerned the future — to the pledges I would advise, old Lambdas never die, they just fade away.

TAU KAPPA EPSILON

It has been said, mainly by the guys next door, that the TKE's had a banner year; at least some guys learned not to run a flag pattern against our neighbors. Big Ed might not agree about the banner year, though. He got himself into deep water, and a broken finger to boot when he tried to learn to use a pain, Polack style. Speaking of Slavs, Pavlov would wet his pants if he saw the way Carolina's pants drop whenever Duke cracks the whip. BooBoo has managed to avoid the Whip this year, though not for lack of trying. His method, he hisses, is to push the ejection button everytime he hits the "Drivers Seat," so to speak, Sadler, our leather freak, was having himself Ty-ed down every night for a while, but now spends all his time trying to erase his roomie's Big Mistake. Cam went OTR fall term and got kicked out of the house. He headed for Chicago, but stopped off in JT's room en-root for Puerto Rico. Rumor also has it that the reason Hoff drops so many banana splits in that Sylvia's mother greased his fingers so that he couldn't cling to any vines. Booner hasn't really quit sodomy, he's just switched from peacocks to five dogs at night. Hooves said Puckett all and split for Australia. We hear he and Hunts have shed their clothes, and are still wondering what Craig does at 12:30 in the afternoon. Lydes was lucky he didn't get Sued for his escapade at Eight-Days Inn, but paid for it when he Chucked at the Smoker. By the way CKL, how was the Leadership Conference in Lakeland? The big rumor now is that Franco once slept at night, but when asked he replied, "Does I'm a d — O practice on his organ?" All we know is that it gets harder and harder, to listen to it, that is. When he practices, though, he throws Smitty out of the room, but the CK KID doesn't mind, he watched the Krude sights at Evil People until his eyes pop out. Drescher is worried that Wards may transfer him to New Jersey for monkeying around, so he is contemplating dropping out of it all and joining the Maureens. Pong, our jock, may wield a mean paddle, but his real claim to fame is with the Cue. WB and OB even got together and named a pool trick after him. It's doubtful that OB got in on the brainwork part, for it is well known that he's so useless, he couldn't even get it up for money (you might say for a fee) Big Bad Dave has been thinking???? of transferring that nine bucks a eg a U-Va. The Jimmer claims he got busted when he tried Gay Liberation. He says, "Eye felt like a boob." Snuggles keeps one of Commander's old collars in her room, and they say it glows on the few occasions that GT Wells turns the heat on. If you didn't get that one read the graffiti in the Center Stall. Nisko was unable to "plug" his Sex Machine in his new MG, so he found a stray mutt and tried to drive to Deland, without his car keys. Speaking of driving, there were reports of Buffalochips all over I-15, but the troopers, when they caught the culprit, remembering the rush meeting, decided to tak his money. Ever since Wild Bill bought a new Blazer, he'd had Mr. Spock beaming down on his K-tendencies. Spic, in his quest for old snow, has found that there's no pot of gold at the end of the rainbow, only an active Magic Room. The search isn't over though, for he still asks, "where are the snows of yesteryear?"

PHI DELTA THETA

This year is probably the most successful in the history of Florida Beta, Phi Delta Thets. The Phi have become one of the strongest houses on campus and can look forward to a very prosperous future. And now for a few timely comments about our illustrious brothers . . .

O. J. gets a $50 dollars certificate for grill cheese sandwiches . . . watch out for that new thriller "Dora . . . Dora . . . Dora" The Whale an endangered specie was caught by some new Bates.

Professor Bradley becomes the latest Phantom Phi with Econ test in one hand and tennis racket in the other.

Hud could not deKlein a Theta invitation. B.F.E. went to the beach one day and found a Shelly and now she's got him by the belly. Will Graves went to the Banks looking for a loan, but got slipped a Micky instead.

John Hanlon after a late migration, because of "Pulling a Hanlon", the "Beak Man" cherped his way into a new nest, but the Holly wouldn't stay.

Mike Mertens the Phi's Brazilian counterpart to Easy Rider. Hudgo, good luck in your new endeavors. Crockett! How's your married life after working at the Pub?

Kelvy, best wishes to the first married undergraduate Phi. Better

David Steph, who still hates girls, says he will accept a proposal from Tish only if she gets down on one knee. If not Adios amigo. Greg, stop talking, you might make more sense.

Dave "Wistar" still enrolled in school has increased his world record for "fox day" to 365 days just this last year.

Mac returns as the "Lone Star" in the fifth year showing of one of our biggest hits "Texans: Reality or Myth".

Sam — Thanks from the DuBois Health Center for keeping it open again this year. Fall term in Australia was The Best! Right, Carla? King Fulton III — To our Lord and King, our meaningless lives have been brought alive with a burning hunger for life and death by your shadow. To thee our most gracious "Sire" we give on to you the keys of the kingdom which when opened by your greatness will yield . . . nothing. Keep the Booser barking.

Pledges its quality not quantity that counts. Get it Block, we are laughing at you not with you!!!! (Guess who?) Beware our dear pledges, crazy Chris may return in '75. And from the 4th floor to those who hear the beat of a different drummer, we can provide the bridge but not the vehicle to bring you over with.
